New Sales Executive at SEA

Somerset-based Systems Engineering & Assessment Ltd (SEA), is pleased to announce the appointment of Chris Milburn as a Sales Executive for the Marine Division.

Chris will strengthen the Company's communication and messaging team which is contributing to the Network Enabled Capability arena.

Chris previously worked for the Communications Department of QinetiQ, where he undertook a variety of technical roles before moving to business development. He has worked on underwater communications, and more recently, was responsible for the Tactical IP Network (TIPNET), which is now a core part of the Maritime Tactical Network.
